

Donation

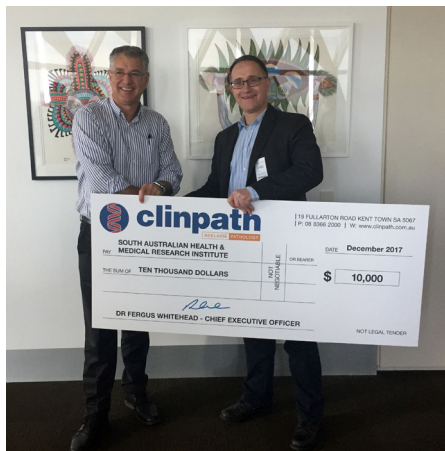

The SAHMRI is home to more than 600 medical researchers conducting inspiring research in South Australia. This year in lieu of Christmas gifts Clinpath Laboratories has made a donation that will contribute towards assisting the teams at the SAHMRI achieve their research goals.

If you would like to also donate to medical research at the SAHMRI, please visit www.sahmri.com.org/donate/

Acknowledgement from SAHMRI

The South Australian Health and Medical Research Institute (SAHMRI) warmly acknowledges the generosity of Clinpath Laboratories! The funds donated will be used to purchase laboratory equipment that will save lives. Thank you and Seasons Greetings from the lab teams in SAHMRI.
